

Agenda

2013 Education Forum

Tuesday, September 17

3:00 pm – 5:15 pm: Opening Remarks and Presentation by John Lynch, Ph.D.
Governor's Room (University Club 2nd Floor)

- Findings of his NEFE-funded research project: “A Meta-Analytic and Psychometric Investigation of the Effect of Financial Literacy on Downstream Financial Behaviors.”
- Facilitated discussion of the findings

5:30 pm: Cocktail Reception and Dinner
Library (University Club 1st Floor)

- Continued informal discussion and dialogue on the findings and implications

Wednesday, September 18

7:30 – 8:00 am: Breakfast
Governor's Room (University Club 2nd Floor)

8:00 – 10:00 am: Continued Discussion

- Implications of Dr. Lynch's research
- Need for improved educational practices and research within school-based and adult financial education programs

10:00 – 10:30 am: Break

10:30 am – 12:00 pm: Development of Practical Outcomes

- Identify a list of effective educational approaches and strategies to disseminate to educators and financial education programs
- Ways to improve learning outcomes for students

12:00 – 1:00 pm: Concluding Remarks and Lunch
Governor's Room (University Club 2nd Floor)